AP 2009B Question #2 Prompt

The passage below is the opening of Seraph on the Sawnee (1943), a novel written by Zora Neale Hurston. Read the passage carefully. Then write a well-organized essay in which you analyze the literary techniques Hurston uses to describe Sawley and to characterize the people who live there.

- What is the prompt asking?
- Identify the steps in the prompt above.

Introductory Paragraph

In her description of Sawley and its inhabitants, Zora Neale Hurston paints a picture with her words of a town very different to most that exist today. Hurston organizes her description of the town carefully, using descriptive adjectives to create vivid images, as well as repetition of sentence structure and the inclusion of colloquial phrasing to give the town and its inhabitants a voice.
